PROCLAIMS THANKSGIVING DAY: WILSON LAUDS YEAR OF PEACE.

Designates Date And Speaks of the Blessings Vouchsafed to the United States.

President Wilson, in a proclamation designating Thursday, November 25, as Thanksgiving Day, calls attention to the fact that the United States has been at peace while most of Europe has been war.

"We have been able to assert our rights and the rights of mankind without breach of friendship with the great nations with whom we have to deal," said the president.

The text follows:

"It has long been the honored custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His blessings and mercies to us as a nation.
